Sterne Kessler
Goldstein Fox
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

PRESS RELEASE

STERNE KESSLER LAW LIBRARIAN RECEIVES
INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION

WASHINGTON, DC – Dialog, a company of the Thomson Corporation, a leading global provider of integrated information-based solutions to business and professional customers, has named Kelley Martin, Law Librarian at Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein and Fox P.L.L.C. as a recipient of the Dialog Quantum^2 InfoStar award.

The award is given to recognize professional leadership in the provision of information services. Martin is one of four honorees selected through a global nomination process for the award which is given to as few as 12 high-profile individuals a year who serve as role models in the profession of information services.

"We place high value on our professional staff who support our efforts to provide the best possible service to our clients. The recognition of Ms. Martin as an outstanding law librarian is a well-deserved honor and we feel privileged that she has been an outstanding member of our staff for the past 11 years," stated Jorge Goldstein, Managing Director at Sterne Kessler.

Martin formally accepted the award at the Special Libraries Association Annual Conference held in Baltimore, Md., June 12, 2006. She is a member of the Law Librarians Society of the District of Columbia and the American Association of Law Libraries. Martin earned her Master of Library and Information Science at The Catholic University of America and is a native of Cinnaminson, N.J.

Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox P.L.L.C. - Strategists and Advisors specializing in the protection, transfer and enforcement of Intellectual Property Rights. Founded in 1978 and based in Washington, DC, the firm has over 100 patent attorneys, agents and technical specialists representing a broad range of clients, including emerging and established companies, venture capital firms, universities and select individuals.

###