STERNE, KESSLER, GOLDSTEIN & FOX ATTORNEY PARTICIPATES IN NATIONAL PATENT JURY INSTRUCTIONS PROJECT

WASHINGTON, DC – Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox P.L.L.C., an intellectual property law firm in Washington, DC, announced today that Of Counsel Kenneth C. Bass, III participated as a member of the National Patent Jury Instructions Project in drafting a new set of model patent jury instructions for use in intellectual property litigation across the United States released to the public on December 5, 2008.

The National Patent Jury Instructions Project is an informal committee of district judges and patent litigators assembled by Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit Chief Judge Paul Michel, in conjunction with the Federal Circuit Bar Association.

The draft instructions are available for download at <http://www.skgf.com/media.php?NewsID=491>, and comments are encouraged via email at PatentJuryInstructions@gmail.com. This set of instructions will not be endorsed by the Federal Circuit and is not intended to be "official" jury instructions. The comment period ends February 1, 2009.
